5k Fun Run

Proceeds benefit the Bulldogs on the Run program

A 5K course is laid out with 4 color stations set up with color powder that will be thrown on the participants as they run through the color station. A color station is usually a small table on either side of the course with buckets of color powder. 4 volunteers per station throw the color powder on racers as they pass through the color station. This event will take place rain or shine; we will not be able to process refunds.
